

Identification – acceptable documents

We accept the following documents as evidence of your identity:

Documents must be current i.e., not expired.

Option 1

One of the following:

- Passport (preferred)
- New Zealand Firearms Licence
- Overseas Passport with proof of NZ residency

OR

Option 2

- New Zealand Drivers Licence (front and back)

Along with one of the following:

- Bank statement, dated within the last 12 months
- Birth certificate
- Citizenship certificate
- Government agency letter, that you received in the post and dated within the last 12 months
- SuperGold card with photo, name and signature

Address Verification – acceptable documents

We accept the following documents as proof of address:

Please choose from one of the options below for your proof of address. Document must be dated within the last six months and show your name and current New Zealand residential address.

- | | |
|--|---|
| <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Utility bill• Bank account statement• Non-bank financial institution statement• Central Government Agency document e.g., IRD, ACC• Local Council/Government letter• Signed rental tenancy agreement, flatting or sub-letting agreement. | <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Electoral roll papers• Insurance policy document• Car registration notification/demand• Letter from employer on company letterhead confirming residential address. |
|--|---|

MINORS

- Documentation confirming relationship between the minor and parent/guardian.
- e.g., birth certificate, guardianship order; and
- Evidence of the minor or parent/ guardian's address where the minor lives.